Thank you to all parents who joined our Zoom meetings for Meet the Teacher evening on Wednesday this week.

Reading continues to be one of our school priorities this year, and all the help that you can give us at home to support each child's reading journey is very much appreciated. Thank you to everyone who manages to remember to bring in their reading book and record in daily and for encouraging them to read at home too.

Every piece of reading is valued, and helps understanding in all subjects. Thank you.
